MEMORANDUM

TO : ALL NNC UNITS

SUBJECT : REITERATION OF THE GUIDELINES IN THE USE OF GENDER-FAIR LANGUAGE
IN ALL MANNER OF COMMUNICATION OF THE NNC

Part of NNC's Gender and Development (GAD) agenda is the promotion of gender sensitivity in the workplace. As such, this is to reiterate observance of CSC Memorandum Circular No. 12, s. 2005, which refers to the use of non-sexist language in all NNC's official documents, communications, and issuances. A copy of the said memo circular including some suggestions on how to use non-sexist or gender-fair language is attached herewith. Further, unit heads are instructed to ensure compliance of this memo circular. Staff may also refer to the orientation materials on use of gender-fair language, presented during the NNC-sponsored Women's Month celebration last 8 March 2022.

For your guidance and compliance.

MC No. 12, s. 2005

MEMORANDUM CIRCULAR

TO : ALL HEADS OF CONSTITUTIONAL BODIES; DEPARTMENTS, BUREAUS, OFFICES, AND AGENCIES OF THE NATIONAL GOVERNMENT; LOCAL GOVERNMENT UNITS; STATE UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES; GOVERNMENT-OWNED-OR-CONTROLLED CORPORATIONS WITH ORIGINAL CHARTER

SUBJECT : Use Of Non-Sexist Language In All Official Documents, Communications, And Issuances

Pursuant to CSC Resolution No. 050433 dated March 30, 2005, government officials and employees are encouraged to use non-sexist language in all official documents, communications, and issuances.

In line with the government's efforts to integrate women's concerns in its plans and programs through the years, the Civil Service Commission continuously undertakes gender mainstreaming activities, taking extra efforts in promoting gender-sensitivity in the bureaucracy. Beginning June 2000, gender and development (GAD) perspectives have been integrated in the conduct of civil service examinations partly through the use of non-sexist language in the test items. This has led to the Commission's active campaign on the use of gender-fair language.

Language is a very essential tool in communication. It articulates consciousness, reflects culture, and affects socialization. Hence, the need to recognize the importance of transforming language from traditional usage to a more liberating one, that which is gender-sensitive.

Since government employees and officials encounter gender issues everyday, the use of non-sexist language in preparing letters, memoranda, and other issuances, will encourage them to make a conscious effort to avoid implicit and explicit discriminatory language against women or men. This, in turn, will help promote gender-sensitivity in the bureaucracy.

Attached are some suggestions on how to use non-sexist language.

Please be guided accordingly.

RESOLUTION NO. 050433

WHEREAS, Section (2), Article IX-B of the 1987 Constitution provides that the Civil Service embraces all branches, subdivisions, instrumentalities and agencies of the Government, including government-owned or controlled corporations with original charters;

WHEREAS, Section 12 (3), Chapter 3, Title I (A), Book V of the Administrative Code of 1987 provides that the Commission shall promulgate policies, standards and guidelines for the Civil Service and adopt plans and programs to promote economical, efficient and effective personnel administration in the government;

WHEREAS, the government has been exerting effort to integrate women's concerns in its plans and programs over the years;

WHEREAS, the Commission recognizes that since language articulates consciousness, reflects culture, and affects socialization, it is a very important tool in communication, and as such, it is important to transform language from traditional usage to a more liberating one, that which is gender-sensitive;

WHEREAS, requiring the use of non-sexist language in common day-to-day activities, such as preparing letters, memoranda, and other issuances, will encourage government employees and officials to make a conscious effort to avoid implicit and explicit discriminatory language against women or men, thereby helping promote gender-sensitivity in the bureaucracy;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission resolves to encourage all government officials and employees to use non-sexist language in all official documents, communications, and issuances.
